Canada Day Flag

Townshipers celebrated Canada Day Flag on February 15th

On Monday February 15th, a small group marked Canada Day Flag, and the fifty-one birthday of the Canadian flag. Thomas Bilodeau who is a resident of the Jacques-Cartier Borough in Sherbrooke organized a little ceremony at the Cenotaph at the Veterans Park located right besides the borough's office in downtown Lennoxville. Both, the NDP MP for the riding of Sherbrooke, Pierre-Luc Dusseault and the former Tory candidate, Marc Dauphin in the same riding in the last federal election that took place on October 19th 2015 were in attendance at the event. A Bishop's University student in politics named Jeremy Andrews sang the national anthem in both of the official languages i.e. in English and French. Even though, the temperature was frigid on that day the event still went along as planned.
